PRESIDENT WORKS HARD ON MESSAGE; USES LEAD PENCIL

Will Read Document to Joint Session of House and Senate To-Morrow.

WASHINGTON, April 11.
HILE Congress was assembling to-day in special session President Harding denied himself to callers and worked on the message he will deliver to-morrow in person to a joint session of the Senate and House. For many years Mr. Harding has prepared his species and other documents in longitud and he is following this custom with his message, writing with a lead pencil and turning the finished product over to stenographers to copy after carefully revising it.

It was indicated that the message would not be complete until to-night or possibly to-morrow

OF GERMANY WHO DIED THIS MORNING G. O. P. DECIDES ON INQUIRY OF SWEEPING CHARACTER ON ALL NEW YORK CITY AFFAIRS

"Not a Graft Hunt," Says Speaker, "but if Graft Is Found Gov. Miller Will Act Promptly and Energetically"-Charter to Be Revised, but Not Until After Nov. 1

By Joseph S. Jordan.

*(Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.) ALBANY, April 11.-It was decided this morning by the heads of the G. O. P. to investigate thoroughly the affairs of the City of New York, including the Police Department and the District Attorney's office. A resolution will be introduced in the Senate and Assembly to-night or to-morrow calling for the appointment of a Legislative Committee for the purpose, the chairman of which will probably be Senator Schuyler M.

The bill creating a commission composed of civilians for the purpose of charter revision will also be passed and to this body the Legislaive Committee will report its findings as well as to the next Legislature.

All this was decided upon at a conerence in the private office of Gov.

lt. Lusk, Speaker of the House Edmand Machold, Senators Meyer and and Col. Arthur S. Woods, former l'olice Commissioner, were present. Commissioner of Accounts Leonard

M. Wallstein of New York City had dothed with all legislative powers to investigate the affairs of the city of New York. It will have the power among other things to go into the Poller Department and the District Attorney's office and the investigation will be a wide open one. "At the same time the bill creating the civilian commission for revision of the charter will be passed, but the work of the legislative committhe will take precedence over the perations of the commission to which the committee will report its undings to help the commission in ts work "The committee will also make a ull report to the next Legislature." The committee will constat of five Senators and six Assemblymen.
